Numb. 8320.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 17. to Saturday April 21. 1744.

St. James's, April 21.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Citizens of the County of the City of Waterford, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Citizens of the County of the City of Waterford, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Citizens of the County of the City of Waterford, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence and Reſentment at the intended Invaſion upon your Majeſty's Dominions, by an ambitious and tyrannical Power, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

The ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and which, by your great Example to your Royal Iſſue, will (we promiſe ourſelves) through them be ſecured to Poſterity, are ſuch Conſiderations as muſt at all Times, and now in particular, call upon us, from the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude, to exert ourſelves in Defence of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government.

We beg Leave therefore to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are reſolved, even at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to give our utmoſt Endeavours to defeat the evil Deſigns of your Enemies, and to ſupport and defend the undoubted Right of your Majeſty, and of your Succeſſors in your illuſtrious Houſe, to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all Attempts and Conſpiracies whatſoever.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City of Waterford, to be hereunto affixed, the ſecond Day of April, One Thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four.

(Price Six-pence.)

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Corke, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Corke, at an Aſſizes held the 13th of March, 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Corke, in your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, moſt humbly beg Leave to take this Opportunity to expreſs our Reſentment and Abhorrence of the Deſigns formed by your Enemies to place a popiſh Pretender on your Royal Throne, to which your Majeſty alone is undoubtedly intituled, and on which we are determined to maintain your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious Family, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all Attempts whatſoever.

As we have hitherto inviolably adhered to the Cauſe of Liberty, the Proteſtant Religion, and your Royal Family; ſo we ſhall, for the future, proſecute the ſame with the utmoſt Ardour, being animated thereto by the great Example of your Majeſty's Magnanimity and Virtue; and endeared to your Adminiſtration, from the Mildneſs and Juſtneſs of your Government.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Arms; and we doubt not but by your Majeſty's Wiſdom, Conduct and Bravery, you will fruſtrate the wicked Deſigns of all your ſecret and open Enemies.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs

Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, having received an authentick Account, that your Majeſty had been graciouſly pleaſed to acquaint your Parliament of Great Britain, of Preparations being made to invade that Kingdom, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, think it a Duty abſolutely incumbent on us, moſt firmly to aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Abhorrence of ſuch deteſtable Deſign.

And as we eſteem the preſent full Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, the Security of our Properties, and all that is valuable and dear to Proteſtant Subjects, to be (under Divine Providence) intirely owing to the great Felicity we are favoured with, and thankfully acknowledge, of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious and good Government over us; and that the only Proſpect we have of the Continuance of theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings to our Poſterity, is by the Succeſſion eſtabliſhed in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family, we cannot but look on any inſolent and wicked Attempt againſt your Majeſty, and to diſturb the Tranquility of your Kingdoms, with the higheſt Indignation and Concern; and we declare to your Majeſty, that we will do all that in us lies (even to the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes) to defend and ſupport your Majeſty, againſt all Pretenders to your Majeſty's Crown, and other your Majeſty's Enemies whatſoever.

And we humbly beg Leave to lay hold of this Opportunity, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Victory juſt now obtained by your Majeſty's Fleet over the Combined Squadrons in the Mediterranean: And we aſſuredly truſt, from your Majeſty's approved wiſe Conduct and unparallelled Valour, (and which more eſpecially was ſo eminently inſtanced to your Majeſty's high Renown on a late for ever memorable Occaſion, in Defence of the Liberty and Peace of Europe, againſt the Common Diſturbers thereof) that by the Aſſiſtance of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, all thoſe, who have the Preſumption to be Enemies to your Majeſty, will deſervedly bring on themſelves Confuſion and Deſtruction.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, this Nineteenth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty three.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Monaghan, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Monaghan, at an Aſſizes held at Monaghan in and for the ſaid County, on the 27th Day of March 1744.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to declare our hearty Deteſtation of the Invaſion intended againſt your Majeſty's Kingdoms, for the Introduction of a popiſh Pretender and arbitrary Power, by the avowed Enemies of our preſent happy Conſtitution: None but the ambitious Diſturbers of the Liberties of Europe could preſume to moleſt the glorious Defender of them.

Your Majeſty's gracious Protection of us in the full Poſſeſſion of our Civil and Religious Rights; your celebrated Actions Abroad; your mild and auſpicious Government at Home, as well as the innumerable Bleſſings which we have enjoyed ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms; the Continuance of which we can only hope for from the Succeſſion of it in your Royal Line, effectually ſecure your Majeſty in the Hearts of your Subjects, againſt all open and ſecret Attempts whatſoever.

Permit us, therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, with firm and zealous Allegiance, and a full Senſe of the ſtrongeſt Obligations of Gratitude, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall not only, at this critical Juncture, but on every other Occaſion, exert ourſelves in a vigorous Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and illuſtrious Houſe, upon whoſe Preſervation and Safety the Welfare of your Majeſty's Subjects depends.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kerry, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kerry, at an Aſſizes held for the ſaid County at Tralee, on the Eighth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty three.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's great great Wiſdom and Vigilance, in obtaining timely Notice of the Preparations which were making, with an Intent to invade your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, upon this and all other Occaſions, give the ſtrongeſt Proofs of our Abhorrence of ſo wicked and inſolent a Deſign; and (to the utmoſt of our Power) will exert ourſelves, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in Support of the juſt and undoubted Title of your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all Pretenders and their Adherents, and all other your Majeſty's Enemies whatſoever; having a grateful Senſe of the Happineſs we have always enjoyed under your auſpicious Government, and being truly ſenſible, from the fulleſt Conviction and cleareſt Demonſtration, that the Lives, Laws, Religion, Liberties and Properties of your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects in Ireland, can be only ſecured by the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, the Continuance of your Government, and the Succeſſion in your Royal Lineage, which we moſt fervently wiſh may be continued to lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Donegall, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Donegall, at a General Aſſizes held at Lifford, the 22d Day of March, 1743.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Donegall, take this Opportunity of declaring our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the Invaſion of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, lately intended in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

Our Religious and Civil Rights, which we have ſo happily enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, and the late Inſtance in expoſing your ſacred Perſon in Defence of thoſe Rights and the Liberties of Europe, in Oppoſition to the ambitious Views of France, cannot but fill our Hearts with the higheſt and ſtrongeſt Sentiments of Zeal, Duty and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, at the Peril of our Lives and Fortunes, exert our utmoſt Endeavours in Support of your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, from whoſe Government alone (as ſettled in your illuſtious Houſe) we can expect thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings of a free Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Grand Jury, the Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Tipperary, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Grand Jury, the Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Tipperary, at an Aſſizes held at Clonmell, the 24th Day of March, 1743.

PErmit us, dread Sovereign, in the Sincerity of our Hearts, to approach your Royal Preſence, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our conſtant and ſteady Loyalty and Affection to your Perſon and Government. The late Preparations to invade your Majeſty's Dominions, and diſturb your Government, call forth our warmeſt Zeal for your Majeſty's Service; and we ſhall, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour, in the ſeveral Stations we are in, to bring to Juſtice thoſe concealed and infatuated Enemies of our moſt happy Conſtitution, who would abet the Deſign of bringing in a popiſh Pretender, who can never reign over us but to the certain Loſs of every Thing that ought to be moſt dear to us, our Religion, our Liberty. To repreſs any Attempt of that Kind, we do moſt chearfully devote our Lives and Fortunes to your Majeſty's Service, for the Security of both entirely depends on the Support of your Majeſty's Right to the Crown, and the Eſtabliſhment of it in your illuſtrious Family.

The following Addreſs of the Grand Jury, Merchants and Freeholders of the County of the City of Corke, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury, Merchants and Freeholders of the County of the City of Corke, aſſembled at an Aſſizes held at Corke the 13th of March 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury, Merchants and Freeholders of the County of the City of Corke, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt hearty Congratulations for the late ſeaſonable Diſcovery

Diſcovery of an intended Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions; an Invaſion inſolently projected, at the ſame Time to impoſe a popiſh Pretender on a Proteſtant People, and to overthrow the Liberty of all Europe.

We ſhould be altogether unworthy of the invaluable Bleſſings which were reſtored to our Anceſtors by the glorious Revolution, brought about by the Wiſdom and Courage of that bleſſed Inſtrument of Providence King William of immortal Memory, and which were confirmed to us by the Acceſſion of your illuſtrious and Royal Family to the Government of theſe Kingdoms, if we did not lay hold of every Opportunity to expreſs our Abhorrence of Attempts made in Favour of a popiſh outlawed Pretender, whoſe Succeſs we are truly ſenſible muſt be our Deſtruction; ſince all our Religious and Civil Rights depend on the Continuance of your Majeſty's Government over us; and our beſt Hopes for our Poſterity center in an Expectation of their being governed to the End of Time, by Kings deſcended from your Majeſty.

We therefore beſeech your Majeſty to accept of our moſt ſolemn and unfeigned Aſſurances, that we will at all Times be ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's lawful and rightful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms: And that we will for ever, with our utmoſt Power, oppoſe the Pretender and all his Adherents, and all other your Majeſty's Enemies, Foreign and Domeſtick; and thereby endeavour to ſecure to our Poſterity, an Aſſurance of being a free, flouriſhing and happy People, as we are, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, at an Aſſizes held in and for the ſaid County, the Thirty firſt Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four, take Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the late inſolent Deſign, carried on by a Nation, notoriouſly perfidious, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

Your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of this Kingdom have deeply felt the fatal Effects of Popery, and (under God) conſider your Majeſty as the Guardian of their Holy Religion.

The Mildneſs of your Majeſty's juſt Adminiſtration is a Security for their civil Rights; and they are truly ſenſible, that the Preſervation of both depends on your Majeſty, and on the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe.

Tho' we have the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of Succeſs, in the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and in the Force of your Arms, yet we reſolve to exert our utmoſt Power to keep out that Deſtroyer, Popery; and to ſupport your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Crown of this Realm, againſt all foreign Enemies, or inmate Foes.

The following Addreſs of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Glanville, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, with the reſt of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to expreſs our Concern that the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign ſhould be diſturbed by Wars abroad, and much more concerned at the audacious Inſult of your Majeſty's Enemies, in their late Intent to invade this your Kingdom, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

We humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that as our Hearts are truly loyal, and we well know that our own Happineſs and Security depend entirely on the Preſervation and Proſperity of your Majeſty and your Royal Family; ſo we will do our Duty to the beſt of Kings, to the utmoſt of our Power.

May the Almighty Providence take your Royal Perſon into his eſpecial Care and Protection, and beſtow all Manner of Bleſſings, Spiritual and Temporal, on your Majeſty and all your Royal Family. Theſe are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof we have unanimouſly cauſed our Common Seal to be affixed hereunto, this fourteenth Day of April, in the ſeventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Corporation of Deal, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Hales, Eſq; Lieutenant of Dover Caſtle, and Deputy Warden of the Cinque Ports, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting:

Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Councilmen of the Town of Deal, in the County of Kent, in Common-Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Councilmen of the Town of Deal, beg Leave to expreſs our Deteſtation of the late raſh and audacious Attempt of the French King to invade this Kingdom in Favour of the Pretender, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs, upon any Occaſion, to aſſiſt you, to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all your Majeſty's Enemies.

The Readineſs of your faithful Subjects of this Place to ſerve your Majeſty, were there no other Teſtimony of their Loyalty, appears from the great Numbers of them, which at this Time voluntarily ſerve your Majeſty on board the Royal Navy.

And ſince your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, has thought fit, in the preſent Conjuncture, to declare War againſt the French King, your Majeſty may depend on ſuch farther Aſſiſtance, towards carrying on the War, as is in the Power of this Maritime Place to afford.

Given under our Common Seal of the ſaid Town, the 15th Day of April, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Wilts, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Garth, Eſq; their Chairman, accompanied by the Right Hon. the Lord Harry Powlett, the Lord Duplin, Sir Robert Long, Bart. Anthony Duncombe, Eſq; Edward Baynton, Eſq; and Rawlinſon Earle, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum and of the Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Wilts, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, upon this Occaſion, to join, with the univerſal Voice of your People, in expreſſing our utmoſt Abhorrence of the intended Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions by a French Army, in Support of a popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms.

The full and uninterrupted Enjoyment we have had of all our Rights, Liberties and Properties, under your Majeſty's mild and moſt auſpicious Government, juſtly calls for the warmeſt Returns of Duty, Gratitude, and Loyalty.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we think ourſelves bound, by all the Ties and Obligations that can engage the Hearts of a Free People, to ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty, with our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all your Enemies whatſoever.

The Declaration of War which has been lately proclaimed againſt your Majeſty by the French Court, is ſo far from giving us any Uneaſineſs, that, on the contrary, it affords us the higheſt Satisfaction both becauſe we are convinced, by long Experience, that we have more to apprehend from their ſecret than their open Enmity; and becauſe the Facts and Reaſons, upon which it is grounded, are ſo notoriouſly falſe, that the whole World will be convinced, there could be no other Motive for it, but the glorious Part your Majeſty has taken in the Defence of the Liberties of Europe, againſt the boundleſs Ambition of that Crown.

And we flatter ourſelves, that all the Powers who are intereſted in the Event of ſo juſt and important a Cauſe, and who have any Senſe of the moſt invaluable Bleſſing of Liberty, will heartily concur with your Majeſty in ſuch vigorous Meaſures, as may eſtabliſh it upon a Foundation, that cannot hereafter be ſhaken by Breach of Faith, and Violation of the moſt ſolemn Engagements. That your Majeſty's Reign may be crown'd with the Glory of accompliſhing ſo deſirable an End, and attended with Felicity equal to that you give your People; and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe, to perpetuate theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings to us and our Poſterity, are the moſt ardent Wiſhes of

moſt Dutiful
and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Marquis of Tweeddale, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for North Britain: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, aſſembled at Aberdeen the Sixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four Years.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, obſerving by your Majeſty's late Meſſage to your Parliament, that there are Attempts from France, to diſturb the Peace and Quiet of your Kingdoms, by an Invaſion in Favours of a popiſh Pretender, whom we have ſolemnly renounced and abjured, do beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity of our meeting together, to expreſs our juſt Indignation and Abhorrence of ſuch a wicked and daring Deſign againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which we look upon, under God, to be the greateſt Security of our holy Religion and civil Liberties; the Succeſs whereof, which we hope and pray God of his infinite Mercy may prevent, muſt undoubtedly ſink us into a State of Slavery and Superſtition: A terrible Thought to us, who have been ſo long bleſt with all the valuable Enjoyments of a free People, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government!

Theſe alarming Circumſtances fill our Minds with the utmoſt Horror and Reſentment, and repreſent the treacherous and ambitious Enemies of your Majeſty's Crown, and of your People's Happineſs, in the moſt deteſtable Colours.

After rendring our humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, we reckon ourſelves bound, in Duty and Gratitude, to offer our moſt unfeigned Acknowledgments to your Majeſty, for the Preſervation of all theſe ineſtimable Privileges that are dear to us as Men and Chriſtians: And we do, with the greateſt Sincerity and Firmneſs, give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we ſhall conſtantly labour, by our Doctrine, Example, and Intereſt, with the People under our Inſpection, upon all Occaſions, eſpecially at this critical Juncture, to recommend and enforce the moſt zealous Loyalty and dutiful Regard to your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe, which, next to the Divine Providence, we look upon as the firmeſt Bulwark of the Church of Scotland.

Great Sire, we cannot omit thankfully to remember the Goodneſs of Almighty God in preſerving your ſacred Perſon amidſt ſo many Deaths and Dangers, when fighting glorioufly for the Liberties of Europe at Dettingen, and bleſſing your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs.

That a gracious God may long preſerve your Majeſty, to perpetuate the Bleſſings of your Government to a free and thankful People, and tranſmit them entire in your auguſt Family, to the lateſt Poſterity, is, and ever ſhall be, the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen.

Signed in their Name, Preſence, and by their Appointment, Ja. Nicolſon, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder and Capital Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Shaftesbury, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Peter Walter, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder and Capital Burgeſſes, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Shaftsbury, in the County of Dorſet,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PERMIT us, (moſt Gracious Sovereign) among the reſt of your faithful Subjects, to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of all Attempts to introduce a popiſh Pretender into theſe your Majeſty's Dominions: An Abhorrence not to be encreaſed, but by conſidering ſuch Attempts are notorioufly encouraged and ſupported by the Power of France.

Permit us alſo to return our hearty and unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for your great and unexampled Care and Goodneſs in providing for the Welfare and Safety of your People, upon this great Occaſion, and to expreſs our Fullneſs of Joy in Beholding a Prince upon the Throne, whoſe mild and benificent Reign has united and confirmed the Affections and Duty of all his Subjects.

We entirely confide in your Majeſty's eminent Wiſdom, for the carrying on the juſt and neceſſary War the Nation is engaged in, and that has been ſo injurioufly begun by the French King: And hope, that as our Enemies are not to be convinced by the Juſtice of your Majeſty's Conduct, the Terror and Succeſs of your Arms, and thoſe of our Allies, (under the Bleſſing of God) will prevail, to the obtaining of ſuch a Peace, as will be a laſting Security to your own Quiet and Repoſe, to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in theſe Kingdoms, and the Trade and Liberties of Europe.

We aſſure your Majeſty that, whether in Peace or in War, we ſhall be always ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty againſt all the Enemies of your Perſon and Government, which we ſhall ever deteſt as Enemies to our Country.

May Providence direct your wiſe Councils and pious Enneavours, that all Things may happily conſpire to compleat the Luſtre of your Majeſty's Reign, and the Glory of the Britiſh Nation.

Given under our Common Seal, the ſixteenth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1744.

Petersbourg, March 27. On Sunday laſt Prince Repnin (Governor of this City during the Abſence of Field Marſhal Lacy) received an Expreſs from Prince Dolgoroucki, Sub-Governor of Riga, with Advice, that Lord Tyrawly, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, arrived there on the 20th inſtant, and intended to proceed on his Journey hither the 23d. His Lordſhip is not expected here before the End of this Week, or the Beginning of the next. In the mean Time, Prince Repnin has ſent Orders for ſixty Horſes to be kept ready, at every Stage, for his Lordſhip's Uſe, on his Journey from hence to Moſcow. By the laſt Accounts from Moſcow we hear, that the young Princeſs of Zerbſt was not perfectly recovered of her Indiſpoſition.

Vienna,

Vienna, April 18, N. S. There is News here of the actual Poſſeſſion of Nice by the Spaniards and the French; but, as it would be ſome Time before the Arrival of their Artillery, we are not to expect to hear of their Attempts againſt the Intrenchments of the Piemonteſe theſe ten or twelve Days. The Spaniſh Troops are ſaid to amount to no more than 17 or 18,000 Men, and the French only to ſeven or eight hundred. The Troops in Bavaria are in Motion, and the News we had had of Marſhal Traun's being ill at Munich, is not verified. The Emperor's Troops are to be poſted at Philipsburg, and are ſuppoſed not to exceed 15,000 Men.

Roermunde, April 21, N. S. This Day two Squadrons of Hanoverian Horſe, of the Regiment of Schée, paſſed the Maeze at this Place, in their March to Flanders, and will be immediately followed by two other Squadrons of the Regiment of Vreden. M. de Bliſia, Commiſſary General to his moſt Serene Highneſs Duke Theodore, Biſhop and Prince of Liege, is arrived here, to regulate, with the Hanoverian Commiſſaries, all that ſhall be neceſſary for the Paſſage of thoſe Troops acroſs the Principality of Liege.

Roermunde, April 24. Two Squadrons of the Regiment of Vreden have paſſed the Maeze at this Place in their Way to Flanders, and will be immediately ſucceeded by four Squadrons of the Regiment of Buſch.

Liege, April 24. The Governor of Maeſtricht has demanded Paſſage for a Train of Artillery, 500 Horſes, and the neceſſary Eſcorte, which will begin to move this Day or To-morrow from Maeſtricht towards Mons.

Amſterdam, April 28, N. S. We hear from Riga and Narva, that thoſe Towns have ſuffered inexpreſſible Damages by the late ſudden Inundations that have happened in thoſe Parts, and particularly in their Magazines of all Sorts of Naval Stores.

Hague, April 28, N. S. By Letters from Paris there is Advice, that M. de Court was returned into Toulon Harbour without any Spaniſh Ships, and that Admiral Matthews had taken up his old Station off of the Iſlands of Hyeres. Other Letters mention, an Embarkation of 2000 Men for Monaco, having been forced by ſome of his Britannick Majeſty's Frigates, cruizing off Villa Franca, into St. Tropez, but add, that the Spaniards having made themſelves Maſters of a Poſt called Soſpello, and of another Defilé, were preparing every thing for attacking the King of Sardinia's Intrenchments upon the 14th Inſtant, ſo that News from theſe Parts is expected here with the greateſt Impatience. The ſame Letters add, that the French King was preparing to ſet out immediately for his Army in Flanders. Letters from Madrid mention the King of Spain's being very much indiſpoſed. It is alſo written from Paris, that the Reſolution was taken there to declare War immediately againſt the Queen of Hungary. M. Fenelon ſet out from hence Yeſterday for the Army by the Way of Liege.

War-Office, April 18, 1744.

The following Orders and Inſtructions having been given to the Colonels and Recruiting Officers of his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, are publiſhed for the Information of the Commiſſioners and others authorized to put in Execution an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the ſpeedy and effectual Recruiting his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines.

Complaints having been made by the Commiſſioners appointed by the Act now in Force, for the ſpeedy and effectual Recruiting his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, that the Officers appointed for the Receiving of the preſſed Men and Volunteers, have not duly attended their Meetings, I am commanded to acquaint you, it is his Majeſty's expreſs Will and Pleaſure, that you do take Care that the Officers of your Regiment do attend the next and all other Meetings in the Counties and Places to which your Regiment is appointed.

And as other Regiments are allotted to the ſame Counties with your Regiment, the Officers you ſhall appoint for this Service, upon their Arrival in thoſe Counties, are to ſettle and agree with the Officers of the other Regiments, how to diſperſe and divide themſelves, ſo that the Commiſſioners be every where attended, in order to the Receiving from them ſuch Men as ſhall be by them delivered over from Time to Time.

I am farther to acquaint you, that all the Recruits that ſhall be ſo delivered by the Commiſſioners, be received by your Officers, although ſuch Recruits ſhould exceed the Number wanting for your Regiment, ſuch Supernumeraries being afterwards to be diſpoſed of for his Majeſty's Service, for whom the Officers ſhall be fully reimburſed the Charge they ſhall be at thereby.

And for as much as Certificates are by the ſaid Act required to be, by the ſaid Commiſſioners, tranſmitted to this Office, of the Perſons by them levied, and to whom delivered, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that you give it as an Inſtruction to the Officers you employ on this Service, that they take Care to procure Duplicates thereof, which are to be lodged in the Hands of the Agent of the Regiment, to be at all Times forthcoming on any Occaſion that may happen.

And as the Commiſſioners are, by the ſaid Act, directed to uſe their beſt Judgment and Endeavours, that the Soldiers by them levied ſhall be ſuch able bodied Men as are fit to ſerve his Majeſty; you are to give it as a farther Inſtruction to your ſaid Officers, that where they ſhall find a reaſonable Cauſe to object to any any Man on Account of his Age, or being lame, burſten, under ſiz'd, or any other Ways unfit for his Majeſty's Service, that then, in Caſe they ſhall be obliged by the Commiſſioners to receive ſuch Man, they be careful to make their Objections openly upon the Place, and endorſe ſuch their Objections on the Back of the Duplicates they are to ſend up, atteſted, if it may be, by two Witneſſes. They are likewiſe to be careful not to receive any Iriſhmen or known Papiſts.

By his Majeſty's Command,
WILLIAM YONGE.

War-Office, April 18, 1744.

It is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that all the Recruiting-Officers now in England, or who ſhall come to England, belonging to the Iriſh Regiments, do repair to the Counties of Weſtmoreland, Lancaſter, Cheſter, Salop, Hereford, Nottingham, Stafford, Gloceſter, Worceſter, North and South Wales; and that they do act in Conformity to the Inſtructions for the Recruiting Officers, publiſhed in the Gazette, and other Papers, by his Majeſty's Command. By his Majeſty's Command,
Will. Yonge.

This is likewiſe to give Notice, that where the Commiſſioners ſhall have levied any Number of Volunteers and Preſs'd Men, and no Officers ſhall appear to receive them, the ſaid Commiſſioners are deſired to return to the Secretary of War, a Liſt of their Names, diſtinguiſhing the Volunteers and Preſs'd Men: In which Caſe Orders will be immediately ſent to the Officers of the neighbouring Regiments to receive them.
Will. Yonge.

London, April 14, 1744.

Notwithſtanding any former Orders, or any Advertiſements in the Gazette, or other publick Papers, the three Regiments of His Majeſty's Foot Guards, are at Liberty to receive Voluntiers from the Commiſſioners in all the Counties where they ſhall think proper to ſend to Recruit.

By Command of the Field Marſhal Earl of Stair,
C. Elliſon, Dep. Adj. General.

War Office, April 11, 1744.

I having received his Majeſty's Commands, and ſignified the ſame to the ſeveral Colonels of the Regiments of Marines and Regiments of Foot ſerving in Minorca, Gibraltar, and the Plantations hereafter mentioned, to cauſe a ſufficient Number of Commiſſion and Non-Commiſſion Officers to repair, without Loſs of Time, to the Counties and Places againſt each of their Names ſet down, there to receive ſuch able-bodied Men as offer as Volunteers, and Preſt Men as ſhall be delivered over to them, reſpectively, by the Commiſſioners appointed by the Act now in Force for the ſpeedy and effectual Recruiting his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, viz.
